

SERVICE IS HELD FOR MISS CAVELL

Memorial at St. Paul's Cathedral for British Nurse Attracts Huge Throng.

PRINCE DE CROY DENIES GERMANS' ALLEGATIONS

Declares No Organization Exists to Assist Soldiers to Escape From Belgium.

LONDON, October 29, 11:50 a.m.—A service at St. Paul's Cathedral today in memory of Miss Edith Cavell, the British nurse who was executed in Brussels, was attended by a throng, which recalled the funeral of Lord Roberts, at the cathedral, almost a year ago. Before 8 o'clock a great crowd stood shivering in the first cold fog of the season, awaiting the opening of the doors. Shortly after 10 o'clock signs bearing the words "church full" were hung at all the doors except the one reserved for ticket holders.

King George and Queen Mary were represented by Edward W. Wallington, groom-in-waiting to the king; Queen Mother Alexandra by Earl Howe, and Field Marshal Kitchener by Surgeon General Sir Alfred Keogh, director general of the British medical service.

Cabinet Members Attend.

Other prominent persons present were the premier and other members of the cabinet, representatives of Canada and the other dominions, the Belgian minister, and Admiral Lord Charles Beresford.

Miss Cavell's mother, other members of the family and deputations of various Red Cross, ambulance and nursing organizations also attended the service.

Prince Reginald de Croy authorized the Daily Sketch to deny the German allegations of the existence of any organization to assist soldiers to escape from Belgium, of which he and Miss Edith Cavell, as alleged, were the leaders. He says that so far from there being such an organization, some of the prisoners tried at Brussels did not even know the others.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten, "as the imperial chancellor said, and regarding the forgiveness of English malice the Kaiser has already spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Belgium and an English national saint, but she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten, "as the imperial chancellor said, and regarding the forgiveness of English malice the Kaiser has already spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Belgium and an English national saint, but she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten, "as the imperial chancellor said, and regarding the forgiveness of English malice the Kaiser has already spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Belgium and an English national saint, but she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten, "as the imperial chancellor said, and regarding the forgiveness of English malice the Kaiser has already spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Belgium and an English national saint, but she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

"We have forgotten sentimentality," continues the Nachrichten, "as the imperial chancellor said, and regarding the forgiveness of English malice the Kaiser has already spoken."

The newspaper says that Miss Cavell has become the Jeanne d'Arc of Belgium and an English national saint, but she did not fight with the banner of the church in her left hand and a sword in the other.

Article on "Cavell Cant."

The Hamburger Nachrichten, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says in an article under the heading "Cavell Cant" that the recent trial of conspirators proves that German officials whose duty, the newspaper says, is to tell the truth, will not allow "any English woman or a subject of any other hostile nation to take shelter under the cover of charity or the costume of a nurse in order to assist our enemies behind the backs of our warriors."

STRICT ADHERENCE TO LAW IS SOUGHT

Anti-Saloon League Files Petition With Excise Board—List Due Tomorrow.

A final plea to the excise board that in the granting of liquor licenses it adhere strictly to the provisions of the Jones-Works law defining dry zones and imposing other restrictions was made to the board today by the Washington branch of the Anti-Saloon League.

Presented by A. E. Shoemaker, attorney for the league, the petition recites those objections to the granting of licenses which Mr. Shoemaker advanced during the course of hearings on the various applications.

Hundred Licenses at Stake.

If the league's interpretation of the law is followed by the board it will result in rejection of approximately one hundred wholesale and retail applications. Mr. Shoemaker stated.

The board is expected to announce by noon tomorrow the list of those who are to be granted liquor licenses during the license year that begins Monday.

Contents of the Petition.

"The league is advised and contends that hotels with less than fifty bedrooms for guests are not permitted to have a barroom license," says the petition, "that a club or hotel located in a residential district or on a non-business frontage is subject to the same prohibition governing the location of an ordinary barroom; that wholesale liquor establishments are subject to the same law as to location that governs the granting of barroom licenses; that it is not sufficient under the law in granting barroom licenses that there be sufficient business frontage, but that the business frontage must be located in a business district; that the prohibition against the granting of licenses within 400 feet of houses of religious worship, public school houses, colleges or universities is intended as a matter of protection to the community as well as to the institution, and the method of measuring the distances between such institutions and a liquor establishment should be in the interest of the institution and the community around it rather than in the interest of the liquor establishment."

"The Supreme Court of the District has held that action in granting licenses to the two saloons at the Aqueduct bridge on G street in Georgetown was illegal. While the licenses have been appealed to the Court of Appeals, and the case is yet undecided by that court, still the board is vested with full discretion and may properly refuse to renew the license."

"By police testimony and other evidence the character of certain places was shown to be objectionable. It is not doubted that the board will in the interest of public decency deny such places licenses for another year."

Building Permits.

Building permits were issued today to the following:

Samuel Bensinger, to build stable in rear of 1729 7th street northwest; architect, Samuel Bensinger; builder, E. C. Gummel; estimated cost, $400.

James Donohoe, to repair store at 329 Pennsylvania avenue southeast; estimated cost, $55.

T. M. Carlisle, to repair dwelling at corner of 26th and R streets northwest; estimated cost, $300.

Mrs. E. Barnew, to repair dwelling at 129 10th street northwest; estimated cost, $200.

Winifred Gooding Brown and Claude E. Brown, to repair dwelling at 1200 Quincy street northwest; estimated cost, $445.

John L. Newbold, to repair building on Q street, between 27th and 28th streets northwest; estimated cost, $3,300.

Mrs. Barlow's fine score was brought about through her remarkable inward journey. She played the last nine holes in 39 strokes, and only on two holes did she need more than par figures. These were on the tenth and the sixteenth. On the tenth she took an extra putt and had to be content with four instead of three, while on the sixteenth her approach overran the green into a sand trap and she needed six for a par five hole. Mrs. Barlow is a rather short driver and the Lakewood traps are not easy to get out of, so that on the first nine the former eastern champion had to be content with 47. She was bunkered on several occasions. However, it seemed impossible for her to miss a putt and she went along steadily enough.

Mrs. Barlow practically outclassed the field, for the only other score less than a hundred was the 57 of Mrs. Stockton. Match play will be in order today, the draw in the principal division being as follows: Mrs. Barlow vs. Mrs. Irving, Mrs. Fettes vs. Miss Lawrence, Miss Randall vs. Miss G. Pickhardt and Mrs. Fraser vs. Mrs. Stockton.

Visitation to Trinity College.

Most Rev. John Bonzano, apostolic delegate to the United States, yesterday made his annual visitation to Trinity College. He was accompanied by Rev. Father Lepicier, superior general of the Servites; Rev. Condon, principal general; Dr. Pace, Dr. Shields and Dr. Kirby of the faculty of Catholic University, and others. A reception by the student body, with an elaborate musical program, featured the occasion. Addresses were made by the apostolic delegate and by Father Lepicier, in which the growth of Catholic schools in America was discussed and the progress of Trinity College was commended. At the close of the reception the apostolic delegate gave the papal benediction.

Hub Ducks the Flivver Class

Need to tell you what that head-line means. It couldn't have been invented by any one except our old friend Sewell Ford; it couldn't belong to anything but a Shorty McCabe story.

Read this Shorty McCabe story in the next Sunday Magazine of The Sunday Star

Hub Ducks the Flivver Class

Need to tell you what that head-line means. It couldn't have been invented by any one except our old friend Sewell Ford; it couldn't belong to anything but a Shorty McCabe story.

Read this Shorty McCabe story in the next Sunday Magazine of The Sunday Star

Hub Ducks the Flivver Class

Need to tell you what that head-line means. It couldn't have been invented by any one except our old friend Sewell Ford; it couldn't belong to anything but a Shorty McCabe story.

Read this Shorty McCabe story in the next Sunday Magazine of The Sunday Star

Hub Ducks the Flivver Class

Need to tell you what that head-line means. It couldn't have been invented by any one except our old friend Sewell Ford; it couldn't belong to anything but a Shorty McCabe story.

Read this Shorty McCabe story in the next Sunday Magazine of The Sunday Star

Hub Ducks the Flivver Class

Need to tell you what that head-line means. It couldn't have been invented by any one except our old friend Sewell Ford; it couldn't belong to anything but a Shorty McCabe story.

Read this Shorty McCabe story in the next Sunday Magazine of The Sunday Star

WILLIAM C. MONEY HELD ON BLACKMAIL CHARGE

Is Also Accused of Violating Postal Laws in Messages to Two Merchants.

William C. Money, twenty-eight years old, was arrested this afternoon charged with attempted blackmail and violating the postal laws. It is charged that he wrote messages to J. M. Stein, 523 13th street northwest, and Jacob Shappiro, 310 M street northwest, demanding $500 from each. The two messages were contained in an envelope that was received at Mr. Stein's place of business yesterday, and about noon today a messenger boy was sent to the 12th street address to make a collection.

It was by trailing the messenger boy that the police learned of the identity of the writer of the anonymous letter, and when Money was arrested by the police of the sixth precinct and turned over to Inspector Grant he admitted readily he was the writer of the messages, exonerating an acquaintance who had participated in the affair innocently.

Innocent Participant in Affair.

Money's acquaintances was in a place of business at 5th and G streets northwest when he was asked to go to 6th and G streets and get a message from a messenger boy. Joe Morgan, clerk in the office of Inspector Grant, was on hand to take action and he took charge of the innocent participant in the affair.

Mr. Shappiro and Mr. Stein, it is stated, formerly were business partners, and the former consulted Inspector Grant shortly after the letters were received yesterday. Today when the messenger boy reached Mr. Stein with a note, the police were communicated with and Morgan was sent to arrest the person with whom the boy is connected.

Text of the Note.

The note sent by the messenger boy reads: "I have everything ready. I am not alone and if I'm molested the work will go on the same. Now or never."

Money disappeared from the business place at 5th and G streets after sending his acquaintance to meet the messenger boy. He returned a few minutes later, however, and was arrested. Money is said to have told Inspector Grant that he was out of employment and needed the money for his wife and three children. He gave his address as 901 22d street.

Death of Mrs. Adah S. Torrey.

Mrs. Adah S. Torrey, widow of William A. Torrey, for many years a prominent grocer of Washington, died yesterday morning at her home, 3014 11th street northwest. Funeral services are to be held at the residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Torrey was a long resident of the District. Her mother, and three sisters, all residents of this city, are living.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

DOES FEDERAL STATUTE SUPERSEDE D. C. LAW?

Question to Be Decided in Cases of Alleged Adulteration of Lard.

Whether or not the federal food and drugs act supersedes the District health regulations of 1905 is a question to be argued before Judge Mulwony in the Police Court Tuesday in the case of Dora Herman of 700 9th street southwest, charged with violation of the pure food laws.

The defendant, with Nathan Sulverman of 451 E street southwest, Simon Enkle of 528 7th street southwest, Hattie Gaskins of 937 Maryland avenue southwest, Charles Friedman of 1223 C street southwest, Simon Pollock of 21 10th street southwest and Jerome W. Hartnett of 458 8th street southwest, is charged with having sold lard alleged to be adulterated in that, according to the allegation, it was not made exclusively from the rendered fat of healthy hogs.

Attorney Charles Diggs is to argue the case for the defendant, while Assistant Corporation Counsel George Taggart will appear for the government.

By the District regulations a charge can be brought in the Police Court and a fine of not more than $200 imposed in case of conviction, whereas the federal food and drugs act, which is declared to be identical, provides a different penalty.

Similar is the Hartnett milk case, now pending before the Supreme Court of the United States. It is stated that if the court decides the milk cases must be brought before a federal court all such prosecutions in the future will have to be tried in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by the United States attorney.

AT WORK ON FAY'S CASE.

Secret Service Men Probing Alleged Conspiracy to Disable Ships.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Secret service men assigned to the cases of Robert Fay, the confessed bomb plotter, and four others charged with conspiracy in planning to disable ships laden with war munitions for the allies, worked on a report today that the bombs used by Fay were similar to those which had caused fires on certain transatlantic ships last summer.

All the alleged evidence obtained by the government is contained in the confession of Fay, according to William J. Flynn, chief of the secret service, and Mr. Marshall. Both officials asserted that none of the papers and letters taken from Fay's room in Weehawken, N. J., threw any light as to who were Fay's financial backers, if he had any, or tended to show any connection between Fay's acts in the United States and officials in Europe.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

Spain is importing agricultural implements.

STATE MILITIA BODIES' REQUIREMENTS DISCUSSED

National Militia Board and Association of Adjutants General in Session Here.

The national militia board and the National Association of Adjutants General of Militia were in session here today, at the call of Secretary Garrison of the War Department, to consider matters affecting the National Guard and co-operation of the federal government in the organization and maintenance of state military bodies. The board is an advisory body to the Secretary of War as to militia affairs, and its membership of five represents all sections of the country. The two organizations were received by Secretary Garrison today prior to the opening of their session.

It is understood that questions of militia reserve and of harmonizing the proposed continental army contemplated in national defense plans with the existing militia organizations will be particularly considered by the board and the adjutant general. War Department officials say that in any military legislation proposed to Congress it is desired that every possible aid be extended to the guardmen and that nothing in plans for the regular army or the continental organization shall in any way impair the efficiency of the state soldiers. The advice of the board will be sought to this end. The sessions probably will last a week.

New Overcoats for Policemen.

A consignment of the new style overcoat that is to be worn by members of the police force has been received from the tailor and are being delivered to their owners. It is possible that the men will appear in their new coats next week. Heretofore the men wore a frock coat between the hot and cold seasons, but this year the change will be made from the blouse to the overcoat.

Children's $3.00 Coats $1.98

Sizes 4 to 6. Smart coats of chinchilla, corduroy and boucle; mostly belted waists. Black and colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

Mothers are invited to choose from the largest assortment presented this season. Becoming hats of velvet and corduroy, in black and all colors.

Children's Hats Worth $1.00 to $2.00 39c and 89c

CROWD SEES DEATH DUEL HIGH IN AIR OVER WATER

Witnesses Killing of Frank Wright After Desperate Struggle on Brink of Bridge.

CLEVELAND, October 29.—A horrid crowd today saw a death duel